

MARION COUNTY DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES
NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how personal information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information.

Please review it carefully.

Our Organization

This notice describes the privacy practices of the Marion County Board of Developmental Disabilities (MCDD). This notice also describes the privacy practices of persons or entities which have signed a contract with MCDD and which are acting as business associates, and have promised to follow the same rules of confidentiality.

MCDD includes MARCA Inc., as well as MCDD employees and volunteers at those facilities.

If you want to know about the privacy practices of service providers who are not employed by MCDD and who are not business associates, you should contact them directly.

Privacy Promise

MCDD understands that your personal information needs to be kept private. Protecting your personal information is important. We follow strict federal and state laws that requires us to keep your personal information confidential.

How We Use Your Personal Information

When you receive services from MCDD, we may use your personal information for such activities as providing you with services, billing for services, and conducting our normal board business known as health care operations.

If you have chosen a personal representative and have agreed to let your personal representative obtain your personal information, we will provide the information to your personal representative. If you have a guardian we will provide the information to your guardian.

Examples of how we use your information include:

Treatment-We keep records of the care and services provided to you within MCDD. For example, your service and support administrator (SSA) keeps notes on all contacts made in coordinating and arranging for services. If you see a nurse working for MCDD, the nurse will keep records of any care you receive. MCDD staff may share your personal information while helping to develop your service plan.

If MCDD staff want to share your personal information with anyone who is not employed by MCDD, you must give them written permission first. However, we may disclose your identity without your permission if necessary for your treatment or to obtain payment for services.

MARION COUNTY DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES
NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Some personal records, including confidential communications with a mental health professional and substance abuse records, may have additional restrictions for use and disclosure under state and federal law.

Payment-We keep records that include payment information and documentation of the services provided to you. Your information may be used to obtain payment for your services from Medicaid, insurance or other sources. For example, we may disclose personal information about the services provided to you to confirm your eligibility for Medicaid and to obtain payment from Medicaid. MCDD may use your personal information to determine the amount and type of Medicaid services you need and send this information to the proper state department.

Health Care Operations- We use personal information to improve the quality of care, train staff, manage costs, conduct required business duties, and make plans to better serve you and other individuals enrolled in MCDD. For example, we may use your personal information to evaluate the quality of treatment and services provided by our service staff.

Other Services We Provide

We may also use your personal information to:

- Determine whether you are eligible for services from MCDD;
- Recommend to you service alternatives and other possible benefits;
- Tell you about other service providers who may be able to help you;
- Allow MCDD to review direct service contracts;
- Determine whether the waiting lists are being kept in accordance with Ohio law;
- Allow local, state, federal agencies to monitor your services;
- Investigate incidents affecting health and safety, to report these kinds of incidents and to take steps to protect your health and safety;
- Allow MCDD to prepare reports required by the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities and the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services;
- Contact you for assistance in passing levies, unless you notify MCDD that you do not wish to be contacted for these purposes;
- Contact you for assistance for other fund raising activities, unless you notify MCDD that you do not wish to be contacted for these purposes.
